RULES OF THE CIRCULATING LIBRARY OF THE SECRETARIAL TRAINING SCHOOL OF CHINA

1. Books may be drawn by secretaries, secretaries-in-training, directors, and committeemen.

2. The above should apply for books to the Librarian of the Circulating Library, National Committee, Y. M. C. A. 20 Museum Road, Shanghai. After naming the book or books that are wanted, applicants are invited to name other volumes which they would be willing to receive instead, in case the books of their first choice should be out.

3. As soon as each book is received the reader is requested to fill out the stamped and addressed postcard which is sent with the volume so that the Secretarial Training Department may know that the book has reached the addresses.

4. Each book should be returned within three months of its receipt, except in the case of certain volumes for which only two or four weeks' time can be granted. One must secure special authorization if he desires to keep a book for a longer period than is stated above.

5. Registered return postage is the only expense to be borne by the reader. Books are mailed to readers at the expense of the National Committee.

6. A book must be returned in as good condition as when received except for ordinary wear. A book lost or damaged must be replaced.
